THAT DRY QUESTION!

Frankfort, Ky., August 18—Bills to make Kentucky dry and to prevent the intercounty shipment of liquor from wet to dry territory will be among the first proposals introduced at the next session of the Legislature, in the opinion of Senator Hiram Brock, of Harlan. Brock made this statement here tonight. He said the Republicans will urge a Legislative redistricting bill.

LEAVES FOR FRANCE TODAY

Captain Charles W. McClanahan of the United States Hospital Corps, who left several days ago for Washington City, came in Friday for a short visit to his wife and other relatives. He will return to Washington tomorrow and expects to leave for France with the next contingent of American troops.

LEADERS BELIEVE CONGRESS MAY GET REST NEXT MONTH

May Be Able to Get Through With All Work on Legislative Program By September 15—Many Important Measures Before Members, However.

Washington, August 19—The legislative program remaining for the extra session of congress has assumed such definite form that leaders tonight expressed hope for a vacation about September 15, or not later than October 1.

Included in the program for disposal within the next three or four weeks are:

The $2,000,000,000 war tax bill. A new war budget authorizing about $7,500,000,000 in bonds, probably at four per cent, for further loans to the allies and to retire the $3,000,000,000 of 3 1/2 percent bonds already authorized and providing for $2,000,000,000 worth of certificates of indebtedness and a like amount of small denomination war savings certificates. A deficiency appropriation measure aggregating between $5,000,000,000 and $7,000,000,000, now being prepared by the House Appropriations Committee.

The administration trading with the enemy bill, which passed the House July 11.

The administration measure for insurance of soldiers and sailors.

The Webb export trade bill, peace resolutions in the Senate, extension of the espionage act and several minor measures.

Most of these measures, leaders believe, can be disposed of while the war tax bill is in conference. Should obstructive opposition develop against the less important bills, some may be postponed until congress re-assembles.

Passage by the Senate this week of the war tax bill is expected by leaders of both parties but many members believe it will go over into next week. Tomorrow the Senate, having disposed of virtually all minor questions, will enter upon decisive and vigorous disputes over the income, war profits, publishers' and consumption tax provisions.

Senator LaFollette plans a lengthy speech tomorrow in an effort to increase the income and profits rates with Senate sentiment strongly for a higher levy on war profits.

Immediately after passage of the revenue measure, Senate leaders plan to give a short time to peace debate on resolutions of Senator LaFollette and others. Administration and some republican leaders expect to overwhelmingly table pacifist proposals, probably in open session.

In the House, the "gentlemen's agreement," under which business has been suspended for several weeks, will expire this week. Next Saturday the Ways and Means Committee will take up Secretary McAdoo's proposed new war budget and the House will re-assemble the following Monday prepared to dispose promptly of both the bond issue and the new war appropriation measure under preparation. Senate committees meet tomorrow for action on the trading with the enemy, Webb export and espionage amendment bills.

Confirmation of most of the 200 major and brigadier generals recently nominated and of former Representative Victor Murdock of Kansas to the Federal Trade Commission also is expected during the week.

MEN OF FAMILY

May Be Exempted When They Have Not Married Merely to Escape Military Duty Thought Likely Under New Ruling.

Washington, August 19—Renewed discussion of the status of married men under the selective service law has been announced by publication of President Wilson's letter to Senator Weeks dealing with this and other subjects. In many quarters, the President's statement that he had no doubt Senator Week's point as to the exemption of married men was well taken was interpreted as an indication that he approved exemption of any man of family who had not married merely to escape military duty.

The President has full power to direct that the regulations governing selection be amended to this effect. A proposal specifically to exempt all married men was made when the bill was in the Senate, an amendment to that effect of Senator Smith of Georgia being lost by a wide margin. This fact, together with the regulations later promulgated by the President, making exemption possible only in case of actual dependency, are taken as indications that no men as a class will be given general exemption for married men now.

WORK ON EXEMPTION CLAIMS START TODAY

The County Exemption Board was unable to take up any exemption claims Saturday on account of having a lot of clerical work piled up. This work was finished Saturday afternoon and the Board is now working with the claims for exemption.

Saturday the Board certified to the District Board the names of twenty-seven men who had passed the physical examination and claimed no exemption, as follows:

Charles Dixon, Thornton Breckenridge, Edward Lewis, Horace V. Hornback, Charles W. Griffey, Robert McNatt, William E. Foley, Harold H. Irvine, Grover C. Landerback, James S. Hines, Thomas P. Cooper, John J. Ennis, Carl O. Walther, Walter R. Selby, Eljah Applegate, Thomas C. Moore, William Logan, Thomas Bates, Harmon H. Adams, Ben Moran, Harmon H. WANTED

FIFTY MASON COUNTY FARMER BOYS, BETWEEN THE AGES OF 10 AND 18 YEARS TO JOIN OUR

MASON COUNTY HEIFER CLUB

Believing that the future progress and prosperity of Mason County depends upon the continuing development of its Agricultural interests and the business efficiency of our future Farmers, with the hope of being able to aid in those directions, we have decided to organize a Heifer Club for the Farmer Boys of Mason County.

ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, 1917, we are going to purchase Fifty Grade Shorthorn Heifers, about eight months old and weighing about 400 pounds, which we will distribute among the first fifty Mason County Farmer Boys, between the ages of 10 and 18 years, that apply for and agree to care for same and that can execute a bankable note covering the cost of the Heifer; which note shall be payable in the fall of 1918.

The Heifers will be bought by expert cattlemen connected with the Extension Service of the State College of Agriculture and be distributed among the boys by lot. Each boy will be given the same chance to make good, and required to become a member of the Mason County Boys' Agricultural Club and to care for the Heifer under the directions of the County Agent; to have the Heifer bred to a pure bred Shorthorn Bull, this fall, and to have her and her offspring ready for public exhibition and sale in the fall of 1918.

You will not be expected to put up a cent of money now; but, you must properly care for the Heifer and pay for it later and all the increase and profit will be yours.

About $100 will be given away in prizes to the boys getting the best results, with their Heifers, at the exhibition to be held in the fall of 1918.

For full particulars call at Bank or see Mr. E. F. Boyd, Jr., County Agent, at once, as we want to close entries to the club by September 1st.

We are anxious to help boys that are willing to work and learn.

A CLOSER RELATION BETWEEN THE RETAILERS SHOULD BE STRIVEN FOR BY THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The man who tries to monopolize all of the business in his own line, especially if he adopts the course of actually or by implication, condemning the output of his competitor, is merely laying trouble in store for himself. To quote from the "Philistine," he does not know that the dawn of a new day is here; that the brotherhood of man is here. "Co-operation" is the big word now. Every man in any line of worthy business ought to help every other man in the same line. This for the plain commonsense reason that when you put the skids under the other fellow's prospects, you slip the knock out drops into your own.

Any man who thinks he is necessary to the perpetuity of an industry would do well to take a look at himself in a mirror and make sure that the purity of his purpose will stand the litmus test.

Co-operation is constructive. Condemnation of your competitor may destroy you.

OUR GREATEST FOOD CROP

A three billion bushel corn crop is said to be assured and an addition of 175,000,000 bushels to this vast yield is probable, yet the proportion of our great annual corn crop that reaches the table has been estimated as ranging hardly above three per cent. The percent, age will be higher for 1917 owing to the war time corn bread campaign inaugurated by Mr. Hoover, but it will be nothing like as high as it ought to be even in ordinary times. Outside of the Southern States and limited circles in other sections corn bread in any of its forms, except as an occasional dish, is not in favor and the prospect of a large consumption even in war time—short of stern necessity—does not appear to be very bright. Green corn on the cob is the only table offering that is generally popular.

This is highly undesirable, especially under present conditions, and such hope of improvement with reasonable basis as exists ought to be nurtured for all it is worth. As there are many thousands of persons who genuinely like corn bread in some or all of its various forms and who find it particularly wholesome, why should not a similar taste be cultivated among the millions in the course of time? Let the campaigners take courage and let the campaign go on—for our own permanent good as well as to meet the needs of the hour, with its demanded division of our wheat with our allies.

Meanwhile it is a satisfaction to know that not one grain of our vast corn crop need be wasted. Though we may eat but a small part of it, all the great remaining bulk can be profitably employed as feed for draft and food animals. The bulk of the great corn crop can and will be made to produce more generally popular food in the form of meat, milk, butter, cheese, poultry and eggs. For where corn is plentiful is liberally fed to beast and bird, there all these animal foods are produced in the greatest abundance. Cattle, hogs and poultry thrive best on corn feed, and even if we never ate an ounce of Indian corn, except in these derivatives forms, it would still remain our greatest food crop.

Princess Liehnowsky says "One can be a distinguished jurist or political economist and yet lack that far-ranging vision and capacity necessary to be a diplomat or a statesman." Liehnowsky ought to know, for it was he, in the capacity of German Ambassador at London three years ago, who assured the Kaiser up to the last moment that England would not fight.

HOME-READING COURSE FOR CITIZEN-SOLDIERS

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved.)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army, as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 7 YOUR HEALTH

(Preceding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor. 2. Making Good as a Soldier. 3. Nine Qualities of a Soldier. 4. Getting Ready for Camp. 5. First Days in Camp. 6. Cleanliness in Camp.)

The living conditions in the Army are just what most vigorous men need for their physical well-being. Every day brings an ample amount of exercise, fresh air, and good food. Yours will be a very unusual case if you do not find yourself after a few months stronger, healthier, and more buoyant than you have ever been in your life.

It is true, on the other hand, that extreme exertion in marching or fighting may in time be called for. But this will not be until you are thoroughly trained and fit. The periods of strain or exposure will probably be short and are not likely to themselves to do you any real harm. At any rate, you owe it to yourself—and what is more, you owe it to the country—to make yourself "fit" at the earliest possible moment. Sick men can not do much toward winning this war. In the Army they are not only a loss, but during their sickness a positive handicap.

There are a few simple, common-sense rules to follow, which are briefly summed up in this lesson.

Everything you eat will be carefully inspected by the officers in charge of that duty. You will have plenty of fresh meat, bread, potatoes, and other nourishing food. As a general rule, you should eat nothing not supplied in your company mess. Especially avoid green or overripe fruit and the inferior "soft drinks" which will be put before you in shops and by peddlers outside the camp limits.

Your chief care in connection with food will be to chew it thoroughly and eat it slowly. Don't drink excessive quantities of water, tea, or coffee with your meals: this is rather a common fault among soldiers.

Avoid needless exposure. You may be often called upon in the line of duty to march through mud and rain. So long as you are actively on the move it will probably do no harm. As soon as you are off duty, however, take proper care of yourself. Give yourself a rub down and if possible bathe your feet and change your clothing. Use a little extra care to protect your belly from getting chilled; it may save you some annoying attacks of cramps and diarrhea.

If you come in from exercise or drill sweating freely, try to cool off gradually instead of allowing yourself to get chilled. Even in hot weather throw a light coat or wrap over yourself for a few minutes.

One of the most important rules of all is to be careful about drinking water not provided in the camp or recommended to you by medical or company officers. If pure water is not at hand, it is better to drink boiled water or weak coffee or tea. Drinking kills the disease germs.

If you are in the habit of using tobacco, moderate, especially while you are on the march or just before taking strenuous exercise. Your smoke will do less harm and at the same time will be much more enjoyable, if you wait till you can sit down quietly during one of the periods of rest.

Eight hours of each day are set aside for sleep. This is ample, but not too much for most men. Even if you can't sleep for any reason lie still and get a good rest during those hours.

The medical officer will be ready to do everything he can to keep you well. Don't hesitate to report to him if you need any attention even for slight ailments. Every day at "sick call" any soldier who is not feeling well may ask for medical treatment.

It is frequently assumed by well-meaning critics that illicit sexual intercourse and venereal diseases are more common in the Army than in civil life. This is probably a mistaken impression, due largely to the fact that statistics of these diseases are collected in the Army, whereas the corresponding figures for civilian life are incomplete. In the new Army the evils of sexual immorality will be reduced to a minimum. The men will find their time and energy so fully occupied that they will have fewer temptations and dangers of this type than in everyday civil life.

One of your obligations as a citizen-soldier is to conduct yourself in such a way as to create and spread the true impression—namely, that the National Army is made up of men too much in earnest in the great task assigned to them to indulge in lewdness and vice.

The only sure safeguard against venereal disease is to avoid illicit intercourse. A clean life is the best guarantee of sound health. To maintain a clean life, keep away from those things which tend to promote sexual excitement and desire, particularly obscene conversation, reading matter, and pictures.

The moral reasons which should impel every self-respecting man to avoid debasing himself by sexual vice are well known to every man who joins the National Army and need not be recounted here. In addition to the moral reasons there rests upon every soldier the especial duty of avoiding everything that may unfit him for active and effective service. This obligation in the present crisis is even greater and more urgent than in normal times. The soldiers of the National Army will be expected and required to maintain especially high standards of conduct and to honor the uniform they are privileged to wear.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

To The Editor:

Attached you will find a clipping from my former home paper, where they have the Boy Scout Council.

The Scouts are now in camp enjoying the sports of outdoor life.

I thought some of the youngsters of Maysville would like to read the clipping, written by a boy in the camp. In case more of these letters appear in the paper I will send them to you.

Boy Scouts Exploring Find Cliffs and Jagged Rocks Near Their Camp

We rose at five on Monday while it rained. Everything was muddy and as a result the most of the forenoon was spent cleaning up the camp.

Douglas Palmer, the homesick boy, was to be taken to the railroad but as it was raining we ended him to remain till Tuesday, when two Midwestern men were to return him.

The afternoon was spent with moving several large rocks about a ton apiece from a spring so as to make a place to dip a bucket in it.

About three-thirty we took a trip up Brush Creek, to explore the cliffs. These cliffs are jagged rocky preclips ranging from 25 to 100 feet high. All along caves of all sizes can be found. Much time could be spent in the "gorges" with no motley whatever. In the evening we pitched horae shoes until time for our camp fire meeting. We have a discussion about a minstrel show to be held on Friday of this week.

After the meeting all lights went out with the sounding of taps and the guards began their weary watch until relieved.

RALPH WEAHR, Camp Trustworthy.

THE POTATO COMES BACK

The huge potato crop which the Federal forecast indicates will be produced in the United States this year means this important food staple will be cheaper, and makes it possible, says the United States Department of Agriculture, for American families that had to cut down on potato consumption because of high prices to restore the tuber to a prominent place on their bill of fare.

The Department forecast, based on reliable estimates from all parts of the country, places the total potato yield at more than 467 million bushels as compared with 285 million in 1916 and 360 million in 1915. Potatoes of the current season are already in the market in large quantities, and since the early harvested tubers can not be kept easily should be eaten more abundantly now if spoilage is to be avoided.

Next to the breadstuffs, potatoes are the most important food crop of the western nations. The Department points out. They are all the more important now that the world's wheat supply is short, since they furnish starch, the principal food elements contributed by bread, and so may be substituted in part for bread.

It is no hardship to Americans, says the Department, to eat freely of potatoes; rather it has been a hardship to them during the past half year to forego somewhat the use of this common food.

HYPER PACKET OWNERS WILL OBJECT TO PLAN OF WAFTING COAL ON ARTIFICIAL "TIDES"

Wheeling, August, 17—Unexpected opposition of a determined character, it is declared here, has developed against the new United States government plan to bring about increased shipment by river of coal from upper river points by means of the lowering of the river dams and thus creating an artificial "wafting" of coal to lower river points, from Point Pleasant and thereabouts. The claim is made that up the river packet owners do not favor the "wafting" plan to relieve the coal transportation congestion as it is stated here that the making of an artificial coal towboat stage as planned will interfere seriously with upper Ohio packet lines' utilization of pools of the upper river for transportation of freight. If such is the case some solution of the new situation will unquestionably be necessary.

LATEST STYLE IN WATERMELONS

Don't refuse to buy a watermelon just because the stem looks as if it had been nibbled with a bluish starch paste, is the advice the United States Department of Agriculture is giving to housewives. Even if the melon is somewhat smeared with the same substance its contents are not affected. Painting the stems of watermelons with a paste made out of bluestone and starch is Uncle Sam's latest agricultural style. This treatment prevents stem-end rot of watermelons which in the past has caused vast losses in this fruit in transit to market. The little dab of starch paste or Bordeaux paste, therefore, is to be taken rather as evidence that the shipper wished to make sure that the melons reached market free from this rot. Some growers, in a hurry, smear some of the paste on the outside rind of the melon but this does no damage beyond lessening its attractive appearance.

F. M. SACKETT NAMED FOOD COMMISSIONER FOR KENTUCKY

Washington, August 16—Appointment of twenty-eight men as federal food commissioners in 38 many states was approved today by President Wilson. Commissioners for the other states will be selected by the food administration within a few days.

ENDORSED AT HOME

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Maysville Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Maysville adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

Frank Taylor, Prop. barber shop, 401 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "A few months ago, I had a slight attack of kidney trouble and my kidneys were irregular in action. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and then again, were scanty and highly colored. I had a dull, steady ache through the small of my back and my back was weak. Four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Chanslor's Drug Store, cured me of the complaint."

Mr. Taylor is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mr. Taylor—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. LOUISVILLE CANTONMENT TO BE READY AUGUST 25

Richmond, Va., August 18.—That the Louisville draft army cantonment will be turned over to the War Department a week ahead of contract time was stated at the offices of the Mason-Hanger Company here today, following a visit to his family here by Colonel H. B. Hanger, president, who is personally in charge of operations at Louisville, with his nearly 10,000 carpenters and other workmen going like clockwork.

Colonel Hanger expects to notify the government Monday that he will turn over the original cantonment called for completed on August 25. His firm has been given an additional contract to build a remount station at Louisville to accommodate 11,000 army horses.

EXTENTE AIRMEN WORKING HAVOC AMONG GERMANS

Paris, August 19.—The airmen of the allies are working havoc with the German flyers and on German positions far behind the lines. In fights in the air Saturday, the French airmen accounted for seventeen German aircraft and ten British flyers, seven of which were completely destroyed or forced to land inside the Tonic line badly battered from machine gun fire. Eight British machines failed to return to their bases.

In aerial raids behind the lines, allied machines have bombed numerous towns, railway stations and communications, the raids extending as far as Seizette, near the Dutch border, eighteen miles from Ghent, which also received a visitation.

American aviators belonging to the Lafayette squadron took a prominent part in the French raids and performed notable execution. One of the Americans, Corporal Willis, of Boston, was missing from the squadron when it returned to its base.

German airmen also tried their hand at slipping through the British patrol and bombing. In this they also were successful, but the score was against them in the end for the explosive they loosed fell on a British prisoner clearing station, killing ten Germans and inflicting further wounds into nine men of their army who had already met with hard usage at the hands of the British guns.

COMMUNITY SINGING

In order that our citizens may have a look into what some other cities are doing to make their city more enjoyable to live in and create a greater spirit of fellowship among their citizens we quote an article appearing in one of the commercial organization bulletins, we receive:

Community singing was introduced at the public band concert at Green Hill Park Sunday afternoon, July 15, and several thousand people formed the great chorus that sang by the lake front.

Thomas E. Holland, Executive Officer of the Parks and Playground Department arranged the program, after a conference with F. D. E. Bahcock, General Secretary of the Worcester Chamber of Commerce.

Community singing was introduced in Worcester in connection with the Citizenship Ceremony, July Fourth, on the Worcester Common. It has met with marked favor.

GERMANS TO REJECT POPE'S PEACE PLAN

Amsterdam, August 19.—General Von Liebert, in a speech at Rathenow, Prussia, is quoted by the Deutsche Tages Zeitung as saying:

"We can not sign a peace before we have the Flanders coast, a colonial empire and maritime bases. Should we not realize this now, we must prepare to work for it after the war in view of the next war."

General Liebert's speech was loudly cheered by his hearers, but it was criticized by the German press.

Vorwaerts declared: "This may prolong the war until Germany has been so beaten that even other Pan-Germans can not think of a 'next time.'"

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in poor health for two years, caused by a displacement, and during six months of this time was under a doctor's care without getting any help. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I am entirely relieved of the displacement and periodic pains, and am now the mother of a beautiful healthy baby. I am a graduate nurse and will be glad to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to other women."—Mrs. R. W. SLOAN, 6026 So. Park Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

There are many women who suffer as Mrs. Sloan did and who are being benefited by this great medicine every day. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

If you need special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass.
